From a blank slate: learning land use, impacts

By Steve Marschke
News-Ledger Editor

About a hundred people responded to an invitation from West Sacramento and the regional council of governments (SACOG) to attend a "Blueprint for the Future" workshop on planning last week.

Guests, including a cross-section of city residents, converged on city hall to split into groups on Thursday and come up with different ideas for planning one of two different city regions: an undeveloped residential subdivision in Southport, and a slice of the West Capitol Ave. corridor business district. The exercise is an early stage of a regional exercise to learn how local land use choices affect issues such as traffic, air quality and the jobs/housing balance in the region.

"It was a great success," said Mayor Christopher Cabaldon. "We were hoping for about 60 or 65 people, and had over a 100 come over, sit down and roll up their sleeves to make plans for future development in West Sacramento."

The groups' proposals were for educational purposes only, but Cabaldon liked what he saw.

"They came up with some great plans for 'smart growth' development," said the mayor. "Much of what we accomplished was to develop themes that can be applied city-wide. Notions about 'walkability,' the jobs-housing balance, and housing densities that can support light rail."

Proposals from local planning sessions throughout the region will later (in early summer) be analyzed for their regional impacts.

"The goal is to find out strategically what is the best mix for development in the future," he said. "We know we are over-planning the industrial and commercial spaces region-wide. Some communities will have to pull back their plans."

One participant was Beverly Sandeen, a new resident of the city's "Southport" area who was pleased to find herself working alongside with a wide variety of other West Sacramento people, including "old timers."

"I heard about this when I saw the flyer," said Sandeen, who works as an assistant vice chancellor for alumni relations at UC Davis. "I care about the community. I thought I'd learn about some new initiatives in the area, and I thought I could have a voice in the community, but I didn't come with an agenda," she said.

"The group I was in worked on a property that is mostly agricultural, zoned for residential (in Southport)," Sandeen continued. "We were told, 'here's the space: how would you develop it?' With seven people who didn't know each other, we came up with something transit-friendly. We planned a space that could have high-density residential, high-rise and low-rise, single-family residnetial and a regional park. We tried to balance the homes and work elements, with houses as well as jobs. We had some light industrial, some retail, a library, a school and a fire department. We were told about the aging population – we tried to build a place where seniors could walk to the retail spots, walk to the library, walk to a bus station."

Sandeen said she received some instant feedback on the plan's local impacts.

"We were shown how our plan increased or decreased air pollution and the number of car trips used. That's when we knew we came up with a pretty good balance of jobs and housing."

Just tidying up a little –

About 50 people helped out at a 'Beautification Day' on the River City High School campus on Saturday -- including a number of students working for "community service" credit towards graduation.

The volunteers washed walkways, gathered trash and worked on the campus's landscaping.

Rotary Club funds & delivers wheelchairs to Mexico

Several members of the Rotary Club of West Sacramento helped deliver 240 brand new wheelchairs to impoverished and disabled men, women and children in Mexicali, Mexico on April 5. The local service raised $6,000 towards the project.

"It was a very fulfilling and heart-warming experience," said Jim Engstrom, President of West Sacramento Rotary. "These wheelchairs provided the gift of hope and freedom by giving mobility to people who would otherwise never be able to afford them."

Engstrom was joined by his wife, Marsha, his son, Cory and local Rotarians Barry Kalar, John Turner, Dick Marshall and Tim Carnahan on the trip.

"Our club worked with the Rotary clubs in Moraga and Orinda to raise the $18,000 required to make the project a success," said Kalar, former Police Chief of West Sacramento, "and by working together we were able to really make a difference in many lives."

The Rotary Club of West Sacramento meets every Friday at 12:15 p.m. at the Club Pheasant restaurant.

Those who are interested are invited to attend. More details about Rotary and its many projects and services can be found on the local club's web site at www.westsacramentorotary.org.

'Free ride' at UCD

River City High School grad Leanne Briggs has earned a full scholarship from the Frank H. Buck Foundation – an honor that will pay for tuition, books and living expenses while she attends college "across the causeway."

"I will be going to UC Davis," she said yesterday. "I'm going to become a math teacher – that's why I chose Davis, because they have a five year program for teachers."

Briggs graduated from River City with a 4.286 average; she was able to bump above a "perfect" 4.0 by getting additional grade point credit from taking "advanced placement" classes. She was awarded the full scholarship following an application, essay and interview.

While a "Raider" at River City, said Briggs, she was involved in basketball, softball, volleyball, power weightlifting and the academic decathlon team.

LEANNE BRIGGS

"Ms. Tyler, my counselor, gave me information about this scholarship," said Briggs. "As far as deciding what I want to do for a career, it was Mrs. Higgins, my math teacher, who got me interested in teaching math."

Was River City High good for her?

"It has a bad rap with some people, but I like the school," said Briggs. "It has some very good students and teachers."

West Sac not chasing UC Davis biolab

West Sacramento is not in pursuit of the controversial "biolab" facility proposed for the region by UC Davis officials, said West Sacramento Mayor Christopher Cabaldon.

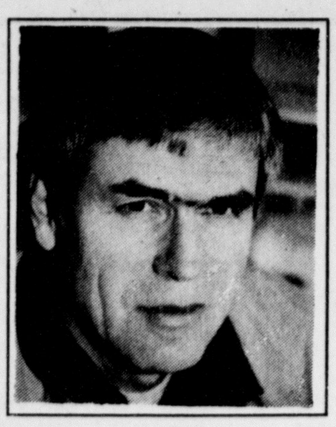
"The council is not going to be taking up the biolab issue," he said yesterday. "No council member has asked to bring this matter onto the agenda."

The proposed highly-secure germ study facility was envisioned by UC Davis for the city of Davis, but community protest has forced the university to look for other sites nearby.

"The university has put out a 'request for proposals' to other communities in the region," said Cabaldon. "I think it has a deadline of about mid-May. Frankly, West Sacramento would score fairly high on their criteria – it is accessible to the campus, they want a facility that can be secure and away from neighborhoods. But we have not sent a reply."

It pays to read that church newsletter carefully

My Back Pages



By Daryl Fisher

Note: With Easter Sunday just around the corner, a longtime News-Ledger subscriber has requested that the following column be reprinted this week and I am more than happy to do so. Happy Easter!

Someone once told me that Portland, Oregon has more churches than any other city in the United States. Now that may be true, but for our size, it seems to me that West Sacramento can more than hold its own when it comes to the number of houses of worship in one community. And when you factor in religious diversity, West Sacramento is second to none! We have churches which minister to Catholics, Baptists, Sikhs, Mormons, Presbyterians, Lutherans, born-again Christians, Seventh Day Adventists, and the list goes on and on.

Anyway, since we are a community of believers, and more than familiar with church newsletters, here are a few actual church newsletter "out-takes" that I think might interest you, and which definitely could have benefited from a little proofreading:

The cost for attending the Fasting and Prayer Conference includes meals.

The Ladies of the Church have cast off clothing of every kind. They may be seen in the basement on Friday afternoon.

At the evening service tonight, the sermon topic will be "What is Hell?" Come early and listen to the choir practice.

Eight new choir robes are currently needed, due to the addition of several new members and the deterioration of some of the older ones.

The senior choir invites any member of the congregation who enjoys sinning to join the choir.

Miss Charlene Mason sang, "I will not pass this way again", giving obvious pleasure to the congregation.

Ladies, don't forget the rummage sale next weekend. It's a great chance to get rid of those things not worth keeping around the house. Don't forget to bring your husbands.

Next Sunday is the family hayride and bonfire at the Fowler's ranch. Friends are welcome! Everyone come and have a fun time. Bring your own hot dogs and guns.

The peacemaking meeting scheduled for today has been canceled due to a conflict.

The sermon this morning will be: "Jesus Walks on Water". The sermon tonight will be: "Searching for Jesus".

Next Thursday there will be tryouts for the choir. They need all the help they can get.

Barbara remains in the hospital and needs blood donors for more transfusions. She is also having trouble sleeping and has requested tapes of Pastor Jack's sermons.

The Rector will preach his farewell message after which the choir will sing, "Break Forth Into Joy".

Please remember in prayer the many who are sick of our community.

Don't let worry kill you. Let the Church help.

Bertha Belch, a missionary from Africa, will be speaking tonight at Calvary Memorial Church in Racine. Come and hear Bertha Belch all the way from Africa.

Irving Benson and Jessie Carter were married on October 24th in the church. So ends a friendship that began in their school years.

Our Scouts are saving aluminum cans, bottles, and other items to be recycled. Proceeds will be used to cripple children.

The Lutheran men's group will meet at 6 p.m. Steak, mashed potatoes, green beans, bread and dessert will be served for a nominal fee. And for those of you who have children and don't know it, we have a nursery downstairs.

Please place your donation in the envelope along with the deceased person you want remembered.

If you attend today's meeting, you will hear an excellent speaker and heave a healthy lunch.

The church will host an evening of fine dining, superb entertainment, and gracious hostility.

Potluck supper Sunday at 5 p.m. Prayer and medication to follow.

This evening at 7 p.m. there will be a hymn sing in the park across from the church. Bring a blanket and come prepared to sin.

Ladies Bible Study will be held Thursday morning at 10 a.m. All ladies are invited to lunch in the Fellowship after the B.S. is done.

The eighth-graders will be presenting Shakespeare's Hamlet in the church basement at 7 p.m. The Congregation is invited to attend this tragedy.

Weight Watchers will meet at 6 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church. Please use the large double doors at the side entrance.

The Associate Minister unveiled the church's new tithing campaign slogan, which is "I Upped My Pledge. Up Yours!"

And finally, my personal favorite: The Low Self Esteem Support Group will meet this Thursday evening. Please use the back door.

Second-grader wins regional contest

On February 8, the Sacramento Chapter of the National Association of Women in Construction (NAWIC), in conjunction with the Boy Scout Pack 49 of Yolo District, Dens 1, 2 and 3, held their local building block program for 30 pre-registered children at Clark Pacific facilities in West Sacramento.

Zachary DeMotte, a 2nd-grader at Southport Elementary School, won the competition locally and has also won the Regional Competition against children from Northern California and Nevada and will receive a $100 savings bond. His project now goes onto the National Competition to have the chance to win a savings bond of $1,000.

Zachary "constructed" both Sacramento and West Sacramento and built the building his father works in, as well as his house and those of some of his friends. He wants to be an inventor and also wants to design and build buildings.

The "Block Kids Building Program" hopes to create an awareness of construction career opportunities in young people. For more information visit www.nawic.org/NEF.

The rest of the story...

David Trussell

Stacy asks:

"I want to refinance, should I be shopping rates? Particular loans? Terms or something else? What's the story?"

Rates "should" be a result of your individual attributes: your credit scores, your debt-to-income ratios, and your loan-to-value ratios, and of course "timing." Rates are not necessarily linked to which loan company you turn to.

It is true, however, that while some companies do indeed adjust your eventual rate for profits, a seasoned Mortgage Consultant has many sources for mortgages. Each source has its own set of qualifying parameters. More times than not, Mortgage Brokers have much more availability to different types of loans and rates than banks do.

Different loans have different qualifying parameters, and can therefore have different rates. The strategy for a Mortgage Consultant is to marry you with the right source (loan) that currently offers the best terms and the best rate to fit your loan parameters.

Shopping for points and other fees as well as rates is always recommended. That said, however, just calling brokers or banks for their rates may be misleading because again each borrower/loan is different. My goal with every borrower is simple: Listen-Educate-Communicate. Getting any type of loan is important business and shouldn't be left to a conversation over the phone. You have to take the time to sit down and discuss your qualifying parameters, and the rates, terms and what loan is best for you at a given time. So to answer your question: if you want to refinance or purchase a home, call me and let's sit down and go over your loan attributes.

Next week Cass asks: "When should I be locking in my loan, and what's 'FLOATING'?"

RC tennis clinches 7th straight league title

With a pair of shutout wins over Dixon and Center, the River City High School tennis team clinched its 8th consecutive league championship last week. The Raiders improved to 13 wins and 0 losses in Capital Valley Conference action and has now won ten league championships in its history, more than any other varsity sport at the school.

Against Dixon, the Raiders were led by senior girls singles players Nikki Hansen and Irina Istomin. In the boys singles matches, Bhaves Patel and Sen Saetern cruised to wins, and did Cheng Saetern and Aseng Saechao, and Savuth Touch and Joe Perez in the boys doubles matches.

In the match against Center, the Raiders' singles players dominated. Patel and Hansen each dropped just four games in their straight-set wins, while Sen Saetern and Istomin did even better, losing just two games apiece. RC's girls doubles teams of Nai Saelee and Mai Ker Yang, and Leslie Yang and Krystle Parkison also had few difficulties with their opponents.

The week's most closely contested match came against non-league opponent Argonaut. Although the Raiders won 6 to 2, there were numerous close matches. Hansen and Istomin both needed three sets to earn their girls singles victories, Touch and Perez won 10-5 in the #2 boys doubles match, and Nai Saelee and Mai Ker Yang were able to squeak by in a girls doubles tiebreak 10-9 (7-4). Only Sen Saetern at #2 boys singles and the mixed doubles team of Heather Yip and Kyle Fisher had one-sided wins.

River City now travels to Lindhurst for a match against the Blazers of the Golden Empire League and then to Oakmont to face off against the Pioneer Valley League's Vikings. The Raiders' final CVC match of the season is at River City on April 22nd against Foothill.

SPORTS INSIDER

Kings Korner

The Kings (58-23) regular season finale against the Jazz on Wednesday night still has playoff implications for Sacramento in the final seeding. The Utah Jazz will again be the Kings' first round playoff opponent, but with Utah's loss to San Antonio on Monday, the Kings still have something to play for on Wednesday.

If the Kings beat Utah and Dallas loses to San Antonio on Wednesday night, the Kings and Mavericks would end the season with the same 59-23 record. The Kings would receive the home-court advantage because they won the season series 3-1. The Kings are at full strength for their playoff run to the NBA title so look for the Kings to set the stage with a win over Stockton and Malone in their season finale.

The San Antonio Spurs (60-21) quietly climbed up the ladder to pass the Kings and Mavericks to win the Western Conference title and secure the No. 1 seed and the home-court advantage throughout the 2003 playoffs. The playoff picture is almost set, with No.4 seed Minnesota hosting No. 5 Portland and No. 3 seed Dallas playing the three-peat champion No. 6 seeded Lakers. If the Lakers win their last two games, and Portland loses their final game Los Angeles could move into the fifth seed. The Spurs will play the No. 8 seeded Phoenix Suns.

Every team has their "Achilles Heel"and the Suns are tough on the Spurs, winning their season series against the Spurs 3-1. The Kings have the Lakers, and the Lakers have the Spurs, while the Mavs just can't seem to beat the Kings. The NBA plays a best of seven series format that could take as much as 28 playoff games to win the World Championship. It's a new season!

If you follow my column, you'll remember I wrote a few months ago about the quiet Spurs as the team beat. The Spurs, who also moved into a new arena this year, won their season series against the Kings (3-1) and swept the Lakers series 4 games to none. The Spurs also may have the league's MVP in Tim Duncan and sport another seven footer in David "The Admiral" Robinson. The Twin Towers will be hard to beat, and with the Admiral retiring after this season the two have been talking seriously about that championship ring!

The NBA will announce the playoff schedule on Wednesday night, but we do know the Kings and Jazz first round playoff series will start either

'Personal bests' mark swim meet

By Patricia A. Andrews

In the sport of swimming, athletes have two opponents: the opposing team and the clock. While winning the event earns much needed team points, a personal best time is also an objective for all swimmers, and several Raiders swam their personal best this past week against Yuba City and Sutter high schools.

During the Yuba City/Sutter meet, Stacie Paige won the 200 freestyle and 100 butterfly; Jenna Alander won the 200 yard individual medley and 100 freestyle; Patricia Andrews won the 50 freestyle; and the team of Andrews, Stacie Paige, Alander and Lizzie Harris won the 400 freestyle. Swimmers achieving personal best times included Jennifer Ben in the 200 freestyle, Hadley Sulpizio in the 50 freestyle, Chelsea Farnsworth in the 100 backstroke, and Caitlan Paige in the 100 breaststroke.

Achieving personal bests for the Raider boys were Dan Hill in the 200 freestyle and Shaun Tapia in the 50 freestyle.

Swimming against McClatchy High School last Thursday, the Raider girls team was held to a single first place finish, by Stacie Paige in the 100 yard butterfly. Her personal best time of 1:08:94 also qualified her for sectional competition.

Personal best times were also achieved by Caitlin Paige in the 200 individual medley, Alexis Rojas in the 50 yard freestyle, Lizzie Harris is the 500 freestyle, Chelsea Farnsworth in the 100 backstroke and Caitlin Paige in the 100 breaststroke. The 200 freestyle team of Patricia Andrews, Alyssa Share, Hadley Sulpizio and Jenna Alander had a personal best time of 2:02:48.

Raider boys personal best times were turned in by Dan Rumsey in the 200 freestyle and Shaun Tapia in the 50 and 100 freestyle.

The Raiders next scheduled event in April 25-26 with the location to be announced at a future date.

Letters to the Editor

Encourage new business owners

It has come to my attention that the recent efforts of Mike Nord and George Larson, the relatively new owners of the Mecca Club, to improve upon their business investment and better serve their customers, have come under fire from the powers that be for an apparently trivial oversight in process. I'm speaking about one of the items on the city council's agenda for April 16, 2003, at 7:30 p.m., regarding their construction of a rather solidly and well built cover over the already established outdoor patio on that site. In fact, all the comments I've heard from several professionals in the construction trades (and others who are regular customers of the club) have been very positive regarding both the construction and the purpose of the offending structure.

I've watched this business, since I moved up here in January of 1986, change from a place that I wouldn't even go into because of its seedy and violent reputation change, under the ownership of Denzel "Tex" Goin, into a quiet, safe, and comfortable "family bar" for several years before he sold out and retired. Mike Nord (who was recently featured in these pages for his dedicated work with the Vietnam Helicopter Pilots Association), and his partner, George, are already partners in another business in this community, and others, which is Western Truck Driving School. In my view you can tell a lot about someone's approach to business by how they maintain their equipment. I have a personal friend who has been a diesel mechanic for some 25 or 30 years who used to work for them. He never once had to complain about their refusal to have required service performed, or, even worse, having to perform "paper maintenance". In fact, he commented that that was because they always wanted the job done right.

Mike and George are on their way to taking this "family bar" to the next level. They've already changed their ambience into an even more convivial "sports bar" atmosphere, reaching a much wider customer base, yet one which is generally quite well behaved. You can walk in and generally find everything from Levi's to suits, yet everyone seems to get along quite well.

I sense a commitment to this community by these gentlemen that, in my not so humble opinion, should be encouraged, not quashed. We need more dedicated, creative, hard-working, committed business owners who are willing to plow their hard earned profits back into our community. We will never become a "premier city" if we continually drive away such persons of quality by adverse actions of this plenum.

Thanks

The City of Davis Resource and Referral would like to give heartfelt thanks to all, including those from West Sacramento, who helped make our Child Development Conference a big success on April 5th. Approximately 240 participants, exhibitors and presenters helped make the conference a rousing success. A special thank you to Lakeshore, VanPelt Associates, A+ The Report Card, KAPLAN, Turn the Page Press, Scholastic Inc., Kathy Robinson, Michelle Johnson and Carla Visha for providing door prizes and to the Banana Slug String Band for performing wonderful songs that taught us about the environment in fun and entertaining ways. There were also some wonderful workshops, everything from helping children problem solve to creative activities and projects. This year we were pleased to offer workshops in three languages; English, Spanish and Russian.

For those of you who missed this year's conference, next year it will occur on April 24th with Child Development expert Bev Bos as the keynote speaker. If you would like information about participating in next year's conference as a presenter, exhibitor or participant, please contact Robbie Townsley or Tamiko Eslick at the City of Davis Resource and Referral at 530-757-5695.

For example, you can expect to find more than 35 great bands on three stages, with sounds ranging from standard rock and swamp pop to rollicking zydeco and Cajun music. Then come the Cajun dance demos, the crawfish races, crawfish-eating contest and cooking demos. Cooking? Yes, many, many hundreds of pounds of crawfish will be cooked up to delicious, spicy perfection. Admission is $5 per day to Parc Hardy, where the festivities are held. For more information, go to www.bbcrawfest.com or call (318) 332-6655.

CRITIC'S CORNER

By D.N.A Smith

"Head of State"

Running time: 95 minutes
MPAA rating: PG-13

Last week I reviewed a horrible race comedy, "Bringing Down the House," where the stereotypes of black people and stereotypes of white people came together to show how truly stupid and unimaginative Hollywood screenwriters are.

This week's movie, "Head of State," is no different, and sadly, not that much better than "House." It's a comedy that wants to be a political and social satire, but turns out to be another rehash of the old "White Folks Are Uptight, Black Folks Got Flava" message.

Chris Rock plays a guy named Mays Gilliam, a Washington, D.C., alderman for a poor urban ward. He tries hard to help them out; he fights the good fight, but they don't give him his props, yo.

Then, to make matters worse, his girlfriend kicks him to the curb, his car gets repo'd, and then his bike gets smashed by a bus. Even the universe is dissin' poor Gilliam.

Here's where the movie gets tricky. A presidential candidate gets killed in a plane crash 10 weeks before the election. Some party bosses tap Gilliam to be the replacement candidate.

They choose him because they know a black man — especially an unknown black man — would never get elected. They intend to lose the election on purpose in order to set up their guy, some evil senator, for the next election.

He starts out playing their game, acting like the typical candidate. But after a while, he decides to keep it real and busts loose, hip-hop style.

This turnaround allows Rock to break out of his Gilliam character and basically deliver riffs stolen directly from his stand-up act and TV show. We've heard all this stuff before, and while it was funny the first time we heard it on TV (for free), it's not so funny when we have to pay the price of a ticket to hear it again.

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS

The Sacramento river registered 7 feet 6 inches U. S. gauge at the Southern Pacific bridge yesterday.

Service stations for automobiles are moving along in a speedy way at this side of the river just like they moved along in Sacramento a year or two go. Fraser and Doyle expected to open their service station at Fifth and Harriet streets fully two weeks ago, but owing to the great pressure of business at the manufacturing plant they have been unable to secure their service house until yesterday. Today the house is being erected and all modern appliances are being installed to cater to a wide trade in this locality. The Fraser and Doyle plant will be modern in every respect.

Near Rose Orchard Station on the Sacramento Northern Railway a service station is being equipped by J. Frates but is of a modest character, just simply a supply station for moaorists in that locality. Frates will also carry a stock of general merchandise for farmers up the river who may be caught short in their household supplies.

The crossings over the Southern Pacific track at Fifth and Sixth street on Ann have been fixed up in a first-class manner with concrete bases and a level roadway for vehicle traffic. Although the Independent promised that the crossings would be closed for only a half a day there was some delay that caused both those crossings to be closed for six or seven days last past. Both crossings are now opened for traffic and will be appreciated by travellers in this locality.

A supply of dynamite was unearthed last Wednesday in the yards of the Valley Construction Co. at Fifth and Ann streets, but after some investigation, it was found that the material was owned by the corporation. The only mistake the Valley Construction Co. made was in leaving the dynamite exposed. A county ordinance provides that stored dynamite must be placed three feet underground and a sufficient distance away from public thoroughfares so that concussions of any kind may not set it off. The company promises to look after the dynamite after having been warned by Constable Buckingham.

The Washington Star club had a big blow out last Wednesday night at the Westminster Presbyterian church and tentatively made arrangements for a dance to be held in the town hall on April 6 to help along the treasury of the organization. At the blow out last Wednesday evening there was a plentiful supply of hot dogs, hot beans cofee and cake.

A Mexican surprised Judge Barry last Tuesday when he announced his name as Mike O'Hara after having been accused of robbery perpertrated on William Sidon. The robbery was perpertrated in West Sacramento from a tent and Mike O'Hara was accused of stealing a sack filled with apples, a pair of old shoes and a can of tomatoes. Just on account of the reflection of his own people Judge Barry was just as severe as he could be and sentenced the Mexican to thirty days in jail. The judge doesn't stand for any insinuations on the Celtic race.

otherwise known as "Swift" was sentenced by Judge Barry to thirty days in the County Jail last Wednesday for stealing an umbrella from the home of did not know that her umbrella had been stolen until it had been recovered by Constable Buckingham and when apprized of its recovery she commended the constable in a very expressive manner. She even wanted to treat him.

took a sentence of thirty days at the hands of Judge Barry.

A big baseball game, a regular out and out game, a money game is going to be played at Riverbank next Sunday between Muchy Mathena's Slammers and the Washington Hopefuls. The Hopefuls won the game played two weeks ago and the Slammers are coming back to do the best they have for the game next Sunday. It appears that there is a job put up on the Slammers for the two umpires, Braun and Barry have been consulting as to what decision they must render even before the game has started. At any rate a great crowd is expected at the ball grounds in Riverbank next Sunday afternoon and Muchy Mathena has been offering all kinds of odds on the betting end of the program.

A poor drug derelict giving the name of May Dunlap was taken from a houseboat last Wednesday by Constable Buckingham and his deputy Ira Davis. She was suffering from many bruises and in addition was suffering from over indulgence in some drug. She had wandered across the bridge from Sacramento, where she had been ordered out of town and was glad to even find a home in a houseboat, where she might lay her head. Poor wretch, she welcomed the sentence passed on her by Judge Barry of thirty days in the County Jail in an effort to rid herself of the terrible habit she contracted after she was deprived of her glass of beer by prohibition.

The boys around Washington are bringing in a few salmon during the past few days, but so far the supply has been so slow that only those who have spare time go out after the finny residents of the turbid stream. Those who know the game are inclined to feel that within the next week good catches will be made provided the weather continues in its favorable condition that now prevails. No shad or bass has yet been caught.

Dave Stauton, who spent a few days of the past week at the Leinberger home, returned to his residence in San Francisco last Wednesday evening.

Last Monday Supervisor Leinberger entertained all the members of the Board of Supervisors at his home a splendid feast was prepared by Mr. Leinberger's sister, Mrs. Smith. It wasn't all eats that the invited guests participated in. The occasion that drew the supervisors was the convention of the Supervisors' Association of the State, at Sacramento. One other guest was present to fill a chair, Gus Goldberg of Sacramento, who is a close friend of Supervisor Leinberger.

Mrs. Alice DePrato is recovering gradually from a severe spell of influenza complicated with bronchial pneumonia. Yesterday she was able to be around her home, but is still suffering.

The Saturday evening dance at the town hall for tomorrow promises to be one of the best that has been given this season, although several previous dances were thoroughly enjoyed by those who attended. A special feature has been added in the shape of an accordian player, Mary Barber. Mary Barber is late of the Orpheum circuit having made a national reputation by her playing on the accordian. Four other pieces will augment the playing of Miss Barber and a great crowd is expected to the dance on Saturday night. The decision has been reached that the dances will be continued on Saturday nights because of the splendid way in which they have been conducted.

Mrs. Mattie Starkey and granddaughter, Joy Painter came up from Oakland, and during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Painter for a year's stay in New York, will make their home at the Painter home.

Mrs. Ofa Conrad and daughter, Claire, have returned to St. Helena after a visit in Washington. Mrs. A. Martinelli, who accompanied them to Washington, is now visiting in Sacramento.

Ray Peck, part-time school instructor in the Southern Pacific shops, is in Los Angeles to attend a conference of trade school teachers.

Word has been received of the death in Bishop, Inyo county of Mrs. Alice Dixon, niece of Mrs. J. McNevin of Washington and Charles McKay of Oakland.

Lawrence Speicher has gone to Susanville for the lumber season.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hart and Mr. and Mrs. George Clifford enjoyed a picnic Sunday in the American River canyon.

Eighteen sheep belonging to F. L. White, Jr., were killed this week by an animal which attacked them at night.

Mrs. Frank De Riso has returned from Oakland, where she was with her sister, Mrs. Leo Brash, who is ill with influenza.

Mrs. Carrie Harms and Mrs. May Barberi went to Oakland to spend the week end.

CLOSING OF STREETS ASKED BY BERTAGNA AND ALBERICCI

A petition is before the board of supervisors of Yolo county asking that several streets in Washington be closed in order that the land owned by F. Bertagna and E. Albericci may be redivided.

Notice of the petition is being published in a Woodland paper.

Before next issue of the Independent a thorough investigation will be made and full particulars in relation thereto will be published.

A public hearing before the board is scheduled for April 2nd at 2 p.m.

SCHOOL BONDS DEFEATED IN SACRAMENTO RIVER DISTRICT

At the election held in the Sacramento River School district last Saturday afternoon March 10th, the $15,000 bond issue was defeated by a vote of thirty-nine to twenty-one. It required a two-thirds vote to carry the election.

Every voter of the district cast a ballot on this occasion—sixty-three in all and of these forty-two voted yes in favor the bonds while twenty-one voted against them.

Unfortunately three voters, too eager to carry the bonds disqualified their ballots by first stamping them with a cross and then writing yes.

By the election board these three ballots were thrown out, thus defeating the bond issue, temporarily.

The trustees of the district, J. S. Bryan, M. M. Teixeira and Mrs. G. Sillano have announced their purpose to call another election as soon as possible on this question for they feel that the defeat of the bonds was brought about only by a fluke. Over anxiety on the part of three voters was the only cause of the defeat of the bonds.

Proponents of the bond issue are somewhat sore because the issue was defeated especially because the condition of the present school building is far from being representative of the district or accommodating for the pupils.

The regular school election will take place on the afternoon of Friday, March 30th. Mrs. Sillano is the retiring trustee and is a candidate to succeed herself which she will likely do, for no other candidate has announced herself in opposition to her.

Forty thousand dollars is being asked for six acres of land in Sacramento.

City Manager Bottorff hays he is not dabbling in gold mines.

PARENT-TEACHERS EXPECT CROWD AT SHAMROCK DANCE

Tonight at the Town Hall the Parent-Teachers' Association expects a large crowd when their annual entertainment and dance will take place to provide funds for the girls' portion of the public school grounds.

Nearly all the children of the public school will have a part in the entertainment in the way of folk dancing, songs or recitations. The children have been thoroughly drilled in their parts and a most enjoyable time is anticipated.

Some side booths will be conducted by the mothers of the children in the way of providing refreshments for those who will attend. A special feature of the affair is a clown's dance promoted by the pupils of several grades.

Committee for the dance have been named as follows: Floor managers, Mrs. F. De Riso, Mrs. J. R. Williams, Mrs. M. Conzetti, Mrs. William Crane, E. Moss, E .Curry, Thomas Robinson, and J. N. Bennett; doorkeepers, I. K. Manchester and A. A. Dassonville; candy, Mrs. O. P. Cook; "hot dogs" Mrs. H. A. Palm and Mrs. E. Reynolds; lemonade, Mrs. B. Parkinson and Mrs. Clyde Crenshaw.

CLIFTON PLACED ON PROBATION FOR FOUR YEARS

R. W. Clifton will escape a term in the state prison by the payment of $900 to Mrs. Luelia Curry and Mrs. Jack Elliott, who charge him with having knocked them down with his automobile and driving away without waiting to render aid. Clifton pleaded guilty when he appeared before Judge C. P. Vicini, of Amador County, in a session of the Sacramento court.

Probation Officer C. H. Wilson made the recommendation adopted by the court.

Clifton is to be placed on a four year probation period, and will be required to pay the sum of $900 to cover injuries and damages sustained.

LEE LIBERATED WHEN SISTO REFUSES TO PROSECUTE

Woodland, Mar. 10.—Reuben Lee, employee of the Sacramento Transportation company, held in the county jail here since a week ago last Friday on a charge of attempted murder, when he shot James Sisto, a young man boarding and lodging at his home in Riverbank, this county, was released at the instance of District Attorney George T. Kern, who found it impossible to prosecute.

Kern had a talk yesterday with Sisto, who became a patient at the county hospital here after Lee had sent a bullet through his face, entering one cheek and emerging through the other. Sisto, now recovered and about to leave the hospital, stated that he was to blame for the early morning rumpus, and that he would not prosecute Lee. Hence there was little else to do than turn the prisoner loose. Lee returned to his wife and family in Riverbank.

ELECTION FOR FIRE COMMISSIONERS PROMISES TO BE TAME

The ladies of Washington are getting the fever. They are about to take part in the election for fire commissioners on April the 2nd, and it has been announced that three ladies are going to be candidates for the vacant positions.

Three mentioned are Mrs. J. McNevin, Mrs. Ed. Esycheck and Mrs. H. Davis.

Whether there is any real truth in the report, the Independent has not been able to verify. Suffice it to say that Walter Leinberger announced himself as out of the race because of much out of town business. J. S. Lear will be out of town all summer and Sid Rickard does not want to run again.

Perhaps these men are afraid of the election or perhaps they are under the impression that the ladies would beat them at the polls.

Between now and election day some lively politics will be doing in and around Washington.

LEINBERGER RECOVERING AFTER SEVERE INJURY TO LEG

Eight weeks ago Supervisor Leinberger while walking along the sidewalk in Sacramento with Sheriff Monroe turned his ankle in a very slight manner and failing to notice that he had done himself any injury he continued on the business at hand without even a remark.

Next morning his leg began to pain, immediately below the knee and on that evening was forced to call a physician because of a severe injury.

The physician found that a ligament had been stripped from the inside of the knee and would likely confine him to his home for several weeks.

Under painful conditions he continued to attend to his usual duties but after several days of this kind of work he was forced to take to his bed where he remained for several days.

During the past two weeks he has been using crutches to help along the injured member, but is now nearly cured from the trouble.

BRYTE MASS MEETING

Bryte, Mar. 15.—A mass meeting to discuss the question of incorporating the town of Bryte will be held next Monday evening at the school. The meeting has been called by President A. Childers of the Bryte Improvement Club.

Hell will be a relief for some men. The henpecked husband will welcome the day he gets there.

REPUBLIC TRUCKS

Consider the construction, first investment, fuel consumption and upkeep when choosing your truck. Then consider whether the truck is backed by a reliable firm, determined to give you "truck satisfaction."

Can you get parts readily and, if necessary, have repairs made immediately? All these should be important factors when purchasing a truck.

In no truck can you find better units—Fedders Armored Radiator, Continental Red Seal Motor, Fuller Transmission, Spicer Joints, Torbenson Internal Gear Rear Axle.

May we demonstrate it?

Women's service group celebrates 40th

Soroptimist International of West Sacramento recently celebrated the 40th anniversary of its founding and a dinner was held at which the four charter members were honored. Those honored were Alma Soost, Erleen Culver, Evelyn Walker and Del Carmichael, with Soost, Culver and Walker acknowledged for having never missed a meeting.

Also honored at the dinner were the following three women who were given awards for their service to the community:

Rebecca Gandara (Women Helping Women Award), who has been an active citizen of West Sacramento in both school and civic affairs. She has been a part of the Sister Friend Project since 1995, serving as a Sister Friend mentor for three years to young mothers who were monolingual Spanish speaking. In 1998 Ms. Gandara became a outreach specialist for the Sister Friend Project and has worked for the program for the last five years in West Sacramento.

Evelyn Walker (Women of Distinction Award), who owns and operates the Walker Studio of Music. She has spent 67 years teaching piano to students from age 5 to 87 and has also made outstanding achievements in her professional and volunteer activities.

Samantha Bowan (Violet Richardson Award Honoring Young Women for Volunteer Action), who is 17-years old and a senior at River City High School. Bowan is active in her community as a Yolo County Friday Night Live Youth Council member and as a high school mentor to middle school youth. She has been a youth council member for three years and is serving her second year as a middle school mentor.

In uniform

Courtney Yeargin has joined the United States Army under the Delayed Entry Program. The enlistment program gives a person up to a year to begin service, and gives the new soldier the option to learn a new skill, travel and become eligible to college funds.

Yeargin is the daughter of Edwin and Regina Yeargin of West Sacramento and is a 2002 graduate of River City High School.
